PHASE I: START OF TURN

> Read: Turn: 1

Read the following at the start of the encounter:

Before you stands a creature that can only be described as a "walking graveyard." Twenty feet of mossy rock and upturned earth, its body is adorned with shattered gravestones, cemetery lanterns and half-exhumed corpses. An aura of necrotic mist lingers around the creature. As it lurches toward you, the grass at your feet withers and dies and the whispers of lost souls fill your ears. Its hollow eyes betray no emotion, but its motives are undeniable: it exists only to extinguish life.

> Read: Turns: 3 • 6 • 9 • »

Read the following at the start of turn 3; read only the bolded parts on turns 6, 9, etc.:

The necrotic mist surrounding Golgothon thickens, filling your lungs with a sickly-sweet scent of death. With each breath, you feel your limbs grow weaker; your will to fight fades. The mist is thinner further from the creature - escape the epicenter before Death's Caress lulls you to a final rest.

PHASE II: PLAYER PHASE

There are no encounter actions during this phase. Once the players have completed their actions, proceed to Phase III: Encounter Phase.

RAID BOSS TIP:

• If players don't seem to be reacting to the warning for Death's Caress, you may wish to remind them and emphasize how deadly the attack is. If they still don't react, well, hey, you tried!
